[redacted] In London, the discussion emphasized the need to assure continued coverage of critical areas, e.g., Poland and the need to meet increased requirements on areas such as Libya and Sudan. Unlike other British departments, the Monitoring Service has avoided budget cuts thus far and seems fairly confident of having sufficient resources to maintain its operations at full strength. Cuban Broadcasts

At the request of the new U.S. Ambassador to Peru, for the next two months FBIS will provide to the American Embassy in Lima, as well as State Department, Cuban broadcast items critical of Peruvian President Belaunde. Ambassador Ortiz believes the Peruvian Government would be less interested in upgrading relations with Cuba if it knew of critical comment currently being broadcast by Havana. ☐
